FROM THE PRESIDENT'S DESK

Dear Sisters in Christ,

Summer is almost here, and for many people there is a change in the rhythm of their life. Certain activities, such as our circle meetings do not happen for several months. This would be a good time to rebalance the activities in our life.

The book, Truly Alive, by Jane E. Vennard explains how life should have a combination of solitary contemplative meditation and prayer, communal activities with others, and missional spiritual practices that reach out to others. Do you want to approach one of these areas in a different way? Do you need to do more in one of these areas? Summer is a good time to try something different.

What ever you do, I hope you have a blessed summer.

Judy
